Containing the freshest Advices Foreign and Domestick.

LONDON, May 14.

OUR Advices by the Paris Alamain are, that French Recruits are daily arriving in Corsica. That all the Shipping at Barcelona and other Ports along that Coast, is taken up for a secret Expedition. That the Austrian General in Tuscany has palisadoed all the Out-works of Leghorn, and is making other Dispositions for repulsing the Spaniards. And that the French King has made a great Promotion of Officers in his Navy, viz. 26 Captains, 80 Lieutenants, 2 Lieutenants of Artillery, 101 Ensigns, 9 Sub-Lieutenants, and 9 Assistants of Artillery.

Extract of a Letter from the Hague.

When M. Raasfeldt, Minister from the King of Prussia, notify'd to the States General the Victory of Mollwitz, he told them, That the King his Master had given Orders to notify the complete Victory, which, with the Assistance of the Almighty, he had obtain'd over his Enemies between Brieg and Grotkaw, tho' he had not so many Foot as them by 4000, and a much less Number of Horse, &c. Their High Mightinesses answer'd him, That they were very sensible of the Regard paid them by his Prussian Majesty, in so immediately notifying to them the Success of the Battle (the Address of this Turn, without either direct or indirect Congratulation, is worthy of Notice) and that their High Mightinesses hoped, that so considerable an Advantage gain'd by his Prussian Majesty, would be a Means of bringing Matters more easily to an Accommodation, and that they had the utmost Reason to believe that they should not be deceiv'd in this their Expectation. Since that, their High Mightinesses, jointly with his Britannick Majesty, have sent fresh Instructions to their Ministers at Vienna and Berlin, to make use of the most pressing Arguments to engage the two Courts to accept of the Mediation of the Maritime Powers, in order to terminate as soon as possible the Misunderstandings which have laid the Foundation of the War that is kindled between them.

His Britannick Majesty has, it's said, caus'd some Propositions of Accommodation to be made to the Queen of Hungary, the Principal of which was, to grant the Possession of Part of Silesia to the King of Prussia by Way of Mortgage; this Expedient, which preserves the Indivisibility establish'd by the Pragmatick Sanction, is not yet relish'd by the Court of Vienna, at least no Answer has hitherto been made to it.

Count Gollowkin has declar'd to their High Mightinesses, that a Body of Russian Troops are marching in order to succour the Queen of Hungary, and that his Court was very ready to enter into the Measures taken by the Maritime Powers for pacifying the Troubles in Silesia.

There has lately arisen a Coldness between the Court of Saxony and that of Berlin, the former taking Umbrage at the Camps of Brandenbourg and Magdebourg; which may possibly reunite the Courts of Dresden and Vienna.

Extract of a Letter from a Prussian Officer, dated 15 April.

I never saw a Battle where the Officers behav'd with greater Intrepidity and Bravery, than that which happen'd between us and the Austrians near Mollwitz in Silesia, the King's Presence spurring their noble Ambitions to exert their Courage, and the furious Attack of the Austrians upon our Cavalry, which was inferior to theirs in Number, making it necessary. The left Wing, which was commanded by Lieutenant General the Count of Schulenburg, felt the first Fury of the Austrians Rage, which however resisted so well, that the Austrian General Romer was kill'd in the Action; but soon after an unfortunate Blow depriv'd Lieutenant General Schulenburg himself of his Life, and put the Wing in some Confusion, which however by the Presence and Regulation of his Majesty, was restor'd to Order. In the Continuance of the Battle, General Neuperg had five Balls shot at him, which only kill'd three of his Horses, and wounded his Hand. The Loss of the brave and experienced Lieutenant General Schulenburg hath been particularly lamented by the Army, and by the King especially, who confidently and frequently consulted him in any great Affair. After the Battle was over, his Majesty desir'd to see the Corps of the Lieut. General, embrac'd it, shed Tears, and testified a great Concern, It is affirm'd, that his Majesty had shew'd some Grief all the following Day, and chose to see but very few Persons. We are at present in such Situation, that a new Battle must ensue, if an Armistice is not soon concluded upon.

Manheim, May 3. The Elector, altho' eighty Years of Age, enjoys at present perfect Health. The Marriage of the Prince of Sultzbach with the eldest Princess Palatine, is it's believed, to be celebrated the 4th of next November, that being the Birth-day of the Elector. It's also said, that this Prince will at the same Time receive the Homage of the States of Juliers and Bergue. It's hop'd that the Difficulties which are apprehended will be raised upon this Subject by the King of Prussia, will be determin'd by Way of Negotiation.

By Letters arriv'd from France we are inform'd, that his most Christian Majesty has granted three Pensions, to wit, one of 1500, and two of 1200 Livres per Annum each, to three Gentlemen, in Consideration of their Bravery, and having distinguish'd themselves in their late Engagement with some English Men of War in the West-Indies.

We hear his Majesty's Ship the Wolf, Capt. Dandridge, which was lost in the Windward Passage, was coming home from Jamaica, with Dispatches from Admiral Vernon and Sir Chaloner Ogle: The Captain and Crew consisting of upwards of 70 Men, were luckily taken up by the French Squadron under the Command of the Marquis d'Antin, and landed ded at Breſt. They were exceedingly well uſed in their Paſſage by the French, and are daily expected home in a Veſſel belonging to the French Navy, who is to land them in England by Order of the Court of France.

London, May 5. We hear his Majeſty has been pleaſed to create his Highneſs the Duke of Saxe-Gotha, a Knight Companion of the moſt Noble Order of the Garter, in the room of the Rt. Hon. the Earl of Waldegrave, deceas'd.

The King has been pleaſed to appoint the Right Hon. Sir Robert Walpole, Knight of the Moſt Noble Order of the Garter, William Lord Sundon, Giles Earle, and George Treby, Eſqrs. together with Thomas Clutterbuck, Eſq; to be his Majeſty's Commiſſioners for executing the Office of Treaſurer of his Majeſty's Exchequer.

The King has been pleaſed to conſtitute and appoint the Right Hon. Sir Charles Wager, Knt. Sir Thomas Frankland, Bart. Harry Powlett, Eſq; commonly called Lord Harry Powlett, John Campbell, Eſq; Vere Beauclerk, Eſq; commonly called Lord Vere Beauclerk, together with Sir John Campbell, Knight of the Bath, commonly called Lord Glenorchy, and Edmund Thomſon, Eſq; to be Commiſſioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of the Kingdoms of Great Britain and Ireland, and all the Dominions, Iſlands, and Territories thereunto reſpectively belonging.

The King has been pleaſed to conſtitute and appoint the Right Hon. John Lord Monſon, Martin Bladen, Edward Aſhe, James Brudenell, Richard Plummer, and Robert Herbert, Eſq; together with Benjamin Keene, and Thomas Pelham, jun. Eſqrs. to be Commiſſioners for victualling his Majeſty's Royal Navy.

Letters from France mention, that the Marquis d'Antin had been kill'd in a Duel with the Marquis de Rocquefuille, who was his Commodore. It is ſaid, that the Marquis d'Antin had not uſed the Commodore well in his Voyage; and that when they came home, the Marquis Rocquefuille ſent the Marquis a Challenge, which he accepted; and ſcarce a Paſs was made, before he was run thro' the Body: The Marquis de Rocquefuille immediately abſented himſelf.

Letters from Schaff hauſen ſay, that the French are buying up great Numbers of Horſes in Swiſſerland, for remounting their Cavalry.

WILLIAMSBURG, July 31.

On Monday laſt, the Hon. Col. GOOCH, our Governor, arriv'd at York, in the Ship Buchanan, Capt. Crawford from Jamaica; and about two in the Afternoon we were agreeably ſurpriz'd with his Honour's Return to this City, in good Health; tho' ſomewhat lame of the Wounds he receiv'd by a Cannon Ball, in his Legs, before Bocha Chica. Not to take Notice of the inexpreſſible joyful Reception he met with in his own Family, all our Inhabitants in general expreſs'd their Joy on this Occaſion, by the Diſcharge of Cannon and ſmall Arms, making of Bonfires, illuminating their Windows (there being ſcarce a Houſe in Town of any Note, but was illuminated) and all other Demonſtrations of Reſpect that could poſſibly be ſhewn by a grateful People, to a good Governor. The Falmouth Man of War, was order'd to convoy his Honour here, who kept Company part of the Way, but is not yet arriv'd.

Edenton, July 10. The Spaniſh Privateers having the Boldneſs to advance a great Way within Occacock Bar, his Excellency our Governor has ſent Orders to the ſeveral Colonels of the Militia, to keep proper Detachments of their Men on Guard, in the Neighbourhood of the Sounds; and to have all their Men in Readineſs to march on the firſt Notice: And in caſe theſe Privateers ſhould land any of their Men to plunder the Inhabitants, or lay waſte the Country, his Excellency has determin'd, if he has timely Notice, to head the Militia in Perſon.

A Spaniſh Privateer lately took a New-England Sloop in Pamtico River; and while they went aboard their own Veſſel with ſome of the Loading of their Prize, they left two of the New-England Men on board their own Veſſel at Anchor: Mean Time, a freſh Gale happening to ſpring up, they cut their Cable, and run up the River; the Spaniards ſeeing this, ſent a Launch after them, and purſued them almoſt to Bath Town; but finding it in vain, they thought proper to return, and the Sloop got ſafe to Bath-Town.

BOSTON, July 30.

We hear from Waltham in the County of Middeſex, that on the 17th of this Inſt. July, about 5 o'Clock in the Morning died there Mr. John Harrington in the ninetieth Year of his Age, and that his Conſort alſo Mrs. Hannah Harrington died the ſame Day about ſeven o'Clock in the Afternoon, in the 77th Year of her Age. They lived together in the married State 60 Years, left Eleven ſurviving Children, and Grand-Children one Hundred and ſixty; which Eleven Children, and about fifty or ſixty Grand Children followed the two Corps to the Grave with great Decency and Solemnity. Mr. Harrington was in the former Wars under Capt. Beers at Hadley Fight (ſo called) where he received a Wound by a Brace of Balls, which confin'd him there for the ſpace of three Years, and ever ſince, by the Information of his eldeſt Children, he had not from that Time a Days Sickneſs until near the Time of his Death.

Andover, July 28. Laſt Friday, in the Afternoon, a very ſorrowful and awful Accident occur'd by Lightning at the Houſe of Mr. Joſeph Robinſon of this Town: A ſtream of Lightning coming down the Chimney of the Back Room, and in its Paſſage breaking out ſundry Bricks and tearing up and breaking a Board of the Floor, bent its Courſe into the Front Room, filled that Part of the Houſe with Fire and Smoak of a ſulphurous ſmell: Struck two young Women, who were ſitting by the Window, forced them back againſt the Wall, one of which was found actually dead with her Hair and Linnen on fire, her Cheeks bruiſed and Back much burnt; the others Life for a time was deſpaired of, (ſhe being almoſt Breathleſs) but (thro' the Goodneſs of God) ſhe after a while revived, tho' with great bodily Diſtreſs, and is now in comfortable Circumſtances.

NEWPORT, July 31.

On Monday laſt Capt. Fox's Prize was condemned in the Court of Vice Admiralty.

On Wedneſday Capt. Stanton arrived from Jamaica, in 33 Days, and Yeſterday arrived 2 more Veſſels. They came out with a large Fleet of Ninety odd Sail, under Commodore Leſtock. He is going Home with 10 Men of War and a Bomb Ketch, that are ſingle bottom'd Veſſels: The reſt of the Fleet are Merchantmen and Tranſports diſmiſs'd the Service. Admiral Vernon was to ſail in a Day or two after them on another Expedition, and the Report was, that they were going to St. Jago de Cuba, and would lay up the Ships in that fine Harbour till the Hurricane Time is over. Jamaica had reinforc'd the Marines with a large Number of ſtout Negroes. We are likewiſe told, that Col. Blakeney commands the Marines this Expedition, and that General Wentworth goes as a Voluntier.

NEW-YORK, Auguſt 10.

Yeſterday arrived here the Brigt. Jamaica Pacquet, Capt. William Boyd, in 38 Days from Briſtol, by whom we hear, that the French Fleet (the Number of Ships not known) is gone to the Baltick, and the Engliſh Fleet after them to obſerve their Motions. And that they are daily in Expectation of a French War at Home.
